

KENNETH J. DIAMOND

Member

 (206) 676-8444

 ken@winterbauerdiamond.com

EDUCATION

- JD, Stanford Law School, 1986
- MA, Columbia University, 1982
- BA, Yale University, 1978, cum laude

PROFESSIONAL ACTIVITIES

- Seattle University School of Law - Adjunct Professor (Employment Law), 2013-2016
- The Worklaw® Network - Executive Committee, 2009-Present
- Washington Defense Trial Lawyers Association
- Stanford Law School - Board of Visitors, 2006-2011
- Seattle Country Day School - Board of Trustees, 2004-2009

PROFESSIONAL RECOGNITION

- Chambers USA, A Leading Lawyer for Labor & Employment Law in WA
- Martindale-Hubbell, AV® Preeminent™ 5.0 out of 5 Peer Review
- Thomson Reuters, Inclusion in the Washington Super Lawyers® list
- Woodwad/White, Inclusion in the Best Lawyers in America®
- Woodward/White, named the Best Lawyers(r) 2020 Seattle Employment Law - Management "Lawyer of the Year"
- Woodward/White, named the Best Lawyers(r) 2021 Seattle Labor Law - Management "Lawyer of the Year"

Ken joined the firm as a Member in 1997. His counseling practice extends to every facet of the employment relationship.

Ken helps guide clients through the full range of employment law issues, including, for example, FMLA and other types of leave, discrimination, harassment, retaliation, workplace disability accommodations, contracts, equal pay, wage & hour, class actions, handbooks, noncompetition, internal investigations, reductions-in-force, and individual terminations. Ken is thorough, thoughtful, practical, and strategic in helping clients achieve their goals.

After graduating from Stanford Law School, Ken clerked for the Honorable J. Frederick Motz, former Chief Judge of the United States District Court for the District of Maryland. Before joining Winterbauer & Diamond he practiced in Washington, D.C. with Covington & Burling and Chadbourne & Parke.

Ken has been repeatedly recognized as among the state's leading employment and labor law attorneys by Chambers and Partners®; named the Best Lawyers® Seattle Employment Law-Management "Lawyer of the Year" in 2020; and named the Best Lawyers Seattle Labor Law-Management "Lawyer of the Year" in 2021.

